

Movies At The Cove

Week 1 - Creed Discussion Guide

We kick off Movies at The Cove with CREED. Creed follows the story of Adonis Johnson, the son of boxing legend Apollo Creed, as he fights for victory in the ring and something even greater outside of it.

1. What is/or was a sporting event you enjoy watching, either on TV or live in person?
2. Has there ever been a time in your life where you were picked last, felt ignored, or fought for approval from others?
3. In the movie, CREED, we learn that Adonis Johnson never knew his father, Apollo Creed. This is the starting point of many of Adonis's challenges. Is there a family member or friend that causes challenges in your life?
4. Adonis grows up, begins fighting on his own, and seeks out training from his father's friend Rocky Balboa. Adonis views Rocky as an uncle, a family member he never had. Is there someone in your life who is like a father/mother/brother/sister you never had?
5. Towards the end of the movie, Rocky tells Adonis that he's not a mistake, that he belongs here, and that they will fight together as family. God is always saying the same thing to us, that we belong with Him, that we can have a relationship with Him, and that we can make it through life together with Him. What is your current view of God and how would you rate your relationship with Him?
6. Final Thought: Adonis finally accepts his father's last name "Creed" when he put on his new boxing attire. Adonis also admits he would tell his father he loves him if he could have the chance. How can you accept God more in your current life situation, and/or what do you wish you could say to God right now?
