Week 3 - Star Wars: Rogue One

Discussion Guide

Movies at The Cove closes out with Star Wars: Rogue One. A prequel to Star Wars: A New Hope, this movie covers the story of the Rogue One crew, who risked everything in order to gain the upper hand on the evil Empire.

1. What is your favorite Star Wars movie or cartoon?
2. What is something you are hoping for? Or something you hoped for in the past?
3. The Galactic Empire seems to be an overwhelming force. Is there something in your life right now that feels overwhelming?
4. Jyn Urso discovered a message that brought the hope of freedom to the Rebel Alliance. Read Luke 4:16-21. How is Jesus's message here similar to the one Jyn discovered?
5. Jyn and the crew take the good news back to the Rebel Alliance Headquarters. However, without any physical proof, the Alliance refuses to take action. Have you ever has a "see it to believe it" moment? How easy is it for you to believe in a God you can't see? (Further Study: 2 Corinthians 5:7; John 20:24-29)
6. Final Thought: In one of the scenes, Churrit Imwe makes the statement that "There is more than one type of prison, you carry yours wherever you go." What have you been carrying around that feels like a prison? As a group, take a moment to pray for each other's "prisons." And remember, Jesus is the hope that can destroy the Death Star in your life.
