Part 2 – We Love People Unconditionally

Study Guide

If you are in a committed relationship with The Cove, or would like to be, it is crucial you know that we love people unconditionally. This means it doesn't matter what a person's past or present is, we are always more concerned about their future, so we love each other as equals. In the process, we remember that we have struggled, and continue to struggle, as well. Without sharing this value, a rocky relational road waits ahead! In this study we will discuss Christ's attitude towards people and compare it with our own attitudes.

1. Have you ever found yourself in a situation where you feared being accepted because of something in your past or present? How did it make you feel? What happened?

- Luke 15:1 (ESV)

2. Read Luke 15:1. What is it about Jesus that is so attractive to people who feel lost? In your experience, is this the same reaction they have to Christians today? Why or why not?
3. Read Luke 15:2 and Luke 5:27-32. How did Jesus respond to opposition He faced as a result of the people He chose to love? Have you ever faced that kind of pressure? How should you react?
