

Tonight, we looked at a concept is very relevant in today's culture: living your best life.

In the message we talked about how we naturally think living our best life happens when we are able to do whatever we want with no restrictions. In actuality this type of reckless living only leaves us with suck in regret. The truth is our best life is found in our relationship with Jesus. Below are some scriptures and questions you can use to continue the conversation with your child.

The thief's purpose is to steal and kill and destroy. My purpose is to give them a rich and satisfying life. John 10:10

What keeps you from living your "best life"?

How can God help you in this area of your life?

How can I help you grow in your faith?
